Total Document Comparison

6 PATENTS

Change-Pro® is the most accurate, complete, and flexible comparison solution available anywhere. Redlines streamline the review process even within Word tables, Excel formulas, and PowerPoint slide decks. Redlines can be shared with anyone; no special software or configurations are required to open and work with redlines whether as Microsoft® Office or PDF files. It is easy to deploy, update, and manage; it can even be installed without the need for a Microsoft® add-in, though there is one available.
