

Use AI to deliver high-quality documents, faster.

Contract Companion is a proofreading tool that leverages Artificial Intelligence to ensure your documents meet your firm's strict quality standards and your clients' expectations.

Why Contract Companion?

Alarmingly, over 65% of legal professionals say they're under too much time pressure, with the result that more than one in three admits to skipping proofreading tasks.

Review Faster

Automatically identify and review errors in real-time and quickly get back to higher-value activities.

Improve Quality

Consistently demonstrate the legal teams' capabilities, value, and work integrity.

Reduce Risks

Reduce time pressure and complete a more precise review that is difficult to achieve manually at the 11th hour.

"Work has been made easier since we've adopted technology from Litera Microsystems. Contract Companion frees us up to do work of a higher value. For example, less time spent on drafting translates into additional time for us to do research on our client's business and allows us to offer more tailored services."

Key Features

Analyze

Assess the legal health of documents in a single click and instantly see items that need attention.

Active Drafting

Issues will be flagged and surfaced where the cursor lays in the document, helping users correct items as they go.

Defined Terms, Cross-references, and Citations

Review flagged items to ensure validity, accuracy, consistency, and clarity.

Editing Mistakes

Remedy mistakes such as unpaired quotation marks, spacing variations, inconsistent numbering, phrases, and case-specific information.
